

Welcome to Lutheran Church of the Master!

We are a vibrant, growing congregation on the corner of Court Street and Road 48 in Pasco, Washington. Our worship reflects a variety of musical styles, from joyful songs of faith from the past to lively songs of hope from the present. Our worship music reaches all the way across the globe in its scope.

We are Christians who worship, serve, and live out of the Lutheran tradition. We believe that we are accepted and forgiven by God in Christ as a complete gift—free of charge, free of effort, free even of will. We are loved “while we were yet sinners,” as the Bible puts it. From that huge, wonderful, and tremendous gift, we are changed, transformed—turned inside out!-- to live as people ablaze with a mission. In this world turned-in and on itself, we find ourselves living gladly as Christ’s own hands and feet, a people dedicated to trust and service.

As Martin Luther, a man who was deeply rooted in Christ's love, put it: “We are the freest of all people, subject to no one.” We believe that the only one who gives us worth, purpose, and hope is God. Nothing and no one else! And yet, “We are the most bound of all people, subject to all.” The gift, by its very nature, gives itself away.

We have all kinds of ways that we seek to share the amazing love of God in Christ-- from worship to Sunday School, from Bibles studies (to which all are invited) to choir, from giving food baskets away to gathering for regular and joyful times of community, from yard sales to youth group activities.

We would love to have you come and experience, with us, the power of God's love in Jesus. Our worship time is 9:30 on Sunday mornings. And you are welcome to call me or contact me anytime. My e-mail is prkaren@charter.net. Our phone number is 547-7125.

I would love to get together with you over coffee, or however you are comfortable- in or out of the church.

Blessings and peace to you this day--

Pastor Karen
